The Canadian Business and Biodiversity Council (CBBC) is a business-led collaboration established to assist Canadian businesses in conserving biodiversity and sharing conservation experiences. The CBBC is pleased to announce its first national workshop to identify and discuss a range of conservation issues in a Canadian business context.

Topics

Global and National Perspectives • Biodiversity and Sustainable Development
Biodiversity Assessment for Business • Branding and Certification
Environmental Auditing, Reporting and Communications
Product Life Cycle & Supply Chain Management • International Implications
Community Engagement • Data Needs and Sources

This workshop will be of interest and value to senior executives and managers with environmental responsibilities or interests.

To register and for more information visit the CBBC website at www.businessbiodiversity.ca or Contact Mr. Reg Melanson, Executive Director, Canadian Business and Biodiversity Council by phone at (613) 203-0063 or email: reg.melanson@businessbiodiversity.ca.

We are looking forward to seeing you there!
